MICHAEL E. HEISLEY, SR.

OWNER

Michael Heisley, chairman emeritus and founder of The Heico Companies, LLC, purchased the Grizzlies on April 11, 2000 from John McCaw after initially coming to an agreement in January of that year. The purchase of the Grizzlies allowed Heisley, a lifelong basketball fan, to achieve his dream.

One of Heisley's first moves to bring a winner to the city of Memphis was hiring NBA legend Jerry West, one of the top basketball executives in the NBA, as the president of basketball operations on April 30, 2002. Less than two years later, the Grizzlies won a franchise-record 50 games in 2003-04 and clinched their first playoff berth in club history. Under West and Heisley's leadership, the Grizzlies made the playoffs three consecutive seasons from 2003-04 to 2005-06, making them one of just nine teams to qualify for the NBA Playoffs in each of those seasons.

Following West's retirement in 2007, Heisley immediately set out once again to re-shape the franchise.

On June 18, 2007, Heisley announced the hiring of Chris Wallace as the team's new general manager and vice president of basketball operations. Wallace joined the Grizzlies after serving the previous 10 seasons as general manager of the Boston Celtics and has long been highly regarded for his extensive knowledge across the basketball spectrum from the high school to professional levels and overseas.

Heisley and Wallace wasted no time improving the roster, making bold moves to acquire 2011 Third Team All-NBA forward Zach Randolph, 2012 All-Star Marc Gasol and 2012 First Team All-Defensive Team selection Tony Allen. Combined with re-signing Rudy Gay, a key member of the 2010 FIBA World Championship gold-medal winning Team USA, and extending one of the league's bright, young point guards in Mike Conley, Heisley's maneuvers have yielded one of the top young teams in the NBA. Under the guidance of head coach Lionel Hollins, the Grizzlies have steadily improved each season and made back-to-back trips to the NBA Playoffs, memorably upsetting the top-seeded San Antonio Spurs and advancing to the Western Conference Semifinals in 2011, and hosting a first-round playoff series for the first time in franchise history in 2012.

But no matter how good a team is on the court, it must have the backing of fans and the community. Heisley recognizes this, and has made strides to establish the Grizzlies as a leader in community involvement. Heisley has taken the lead on numerous large community initiatives, including spearheading a $5 million donation from the Memphis Grizzlies Charitable Foundation to the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital to build the Memphis Grizzlies House, a temporary on-campus residence for the families of St. Jude patients.

The Foundation, led by the Grizzlies' ownership group, has given over $7 million to Memphis Athletic Ministries, who operate six neighborhood centers and run year-round youth sports leagues and after-school programs, and another $1.5 million to Stax Music Academy. The Grizzlies Foundation has donated over $25 million to local non-profit organizations since December 2001, raising the bar for charitable giving in professional sports. The Foundation's commitment to giving earned it the coveted 2007 Steve Patterson Sports Philanthropy Award from the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation as the most philanthropic sports team in the nation and were recently named the 2012 Beyond Sport "Sport Team of the Year."

Of course, the biggest project the Grizzlies organization participated in was the construction of FedExForum, a state-of-the-art arena for the Grizzlies. The arena, the largest public works project in the history of the city of Memphis, was completed in September 2004 on time and on budget, and has set a new standard for NBA arenas. Fans flocked to FedExForum in its inaugural season, setting a franchise record with 18 sellouts, more than the first three seasons in Memphis combined.

Heisley's commitment to the community has been a thank you to Memphis for welcoming him and the team with open arms when he decided to relocate the franchise from Vancouver in the summer of 2001. Prior to deciding on Memphis as his destination, Heisley embarked on a cross-country odyssey to find a new home for his Grizzlies. Upon arriving in Memphis, he knew he'd found that home. Buoyed by impressive corporate and community support, Heisley successfully brought the NBA to Memphis.

Away from the court, Heico Acquisitions Inc., a key subsidiary of The Heico Companies, acts as an investment firm, specializing in buying interests in under-performing companies and turning them around. Heico holds interests in approximately 40 businesses worldwide within a diverse set of industries, including steel wire products, heavy equipment, telecommunications, plastics, food production and material handling equipment. The 40 businesses owned by Heico and its subsidiaries have over $2.5 billion in revenue and employ approximately 13,000 people in varying capacities in the United States and internationally.

Heisley was born in Washington, D.C. and grew up in Alexandria, Va. He holds a BA from Georgetown University, where he served on the Board of Directors, Regents and Visitors for over 20 years. He also serves on the Board of Directors of several portfolio companies along with the Heisley Family Foundation. Heisley resides in Jupiter, Fla. with his wife, Agnes. They have five children and 12 grandchildren.

CHRIS WALLACE

GENERAL MANAGER/VICE PRESIDENT, BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

Grizzlies General Manager and Vice President of Basketball Operations Chris Wallace outlined his goal for the Memphis Grizzlies on his first day on the job on June 18, 2007:

"I'm here to build a championship team. I want to see a parade one day down Beale Street. This city deserves it."

With that statement marking a new chapter in team history, Wallace made a significant step toward that goal in celebrating with thousands of towel-waving Memphians outside FedExForum following the Grizzlies' series-clinching Game 6 victory over the top-seeded San Antonio Spurs in the first round of the 2011 NBA Playoffs.

The Grizzlies would go on to earn their first seven postseason wins during a 13-game playoff run that ended in a thrilling, seven-game Western Conference Semifinals series with the Oklahoma City Thunder. For the city of Memphis and its fans, it was their first taste of NBA Playoff success. For Wallace, it was the culmination of plan to reshape the culture of the organization, which continued into the following season when Memphis set a franchise record for regular season winning percentage (.621) and hosted a playoff series for the first time in team history.

During his tenure, Wallace has assembled one of the league's most cohesive and tenacious units, including 2011 Third Team All-NBA forward Zach Randolph, versatile high-flyer Rudy Gay, 2012 All-Star Marc Gasol, ascending floor general Mike Conley and 2012 All-Defensive First Team member Tony Allen. With key players choosing to sign long-term contracts and contract extensions with the Grizzlies, Wallace has established a core for current and future success for the franchise.

Well-traveled and well-connected, Wallace came to the Grizzlies as one of the most respected executives in the league, having served under seven NBA franchises since 1986. Wallace has worked closely with four Basketball Hall of Famers, including Red Auerbach, Billy Cunningham, Pat Riley and Jerry West, as well as five former NBA Executive of the Year winners, including Danny Ainge, Auerbach, Bucky Buckwalter, Geoff Petrie and West. He spent the previous 10 seasons as the general manager of the Boston Celtics where he had a hand in all basketball-related decisions, including free agent signings, trades and draft preparations.

Prior to becoming the Celtics' general manager, Wallace was director of player personnel for the Miami Heat. The Heat won a franchise-record 61 games in 1996-97 and Wallace is credited with discovering many of the Heat's players. His responsibilities included college and international scouting and searching for potential talent in the CBA as well as the NBA. Wallace was promoted to that position after four years as a scout for the Heat.

Before joining the Heat, Wallace worked in various scouting capacities for the Portland Trail Blazers, Denver Nuggets, Los Angeles Clippers and New York Knicks. He also worked as a draft consultant for the United States Basketball League (USBL). Wallace has also served on the selection committee for the prestigious Nike/ABCD and Converse ABCD national high school camps, evaluating scores of future college and NBA stars.

Wallace, an avid basketball fan before breaking into the NBA, got his start in basketball in 1981 when he founded the award-winning Blue Ribbon College Basketball Yearbook. Sports Illustrated named Wallace as one of the most influential members of the college basketball media in 1991. He has also served as an expert witness in basketball-related litigation and is a member of the Board of Directors at the Touchdown Club of Memphis and Catholic Charities of West Tennessee.

A native of Buckhannon, W.Va., Wallace and his wife, Debby, have a son, Truman.

During the offseason, the Readlyn, Iowa native enjoys playing golf.

LIONEL HOLLINS

HEAD COACH

Since Lionel Hollins was hired as the 11th head coach in team history on Jan. 25, 2009, he has helped to define the Grizzlies as a team that is distinctly "Memphis" – tough, resilient, gritty and successful.

An original member of the Vancouver Grizzlies as an assistant coach in 1995, Hollins has taken the franchise to new heights in less than four full seasons, guiding Memphis to a 3-game run through the 2011 NBA Playoffs that included a first-round upset over the top-seeded San Antonio Spurs and a dramatic seven-game series with the Oklahoma City Thunder in the Western Conference Semifinals. Hollins and the Grizzlies gave the city of Memphis its first brush with NBA Playoff success by winning the first seven postseason games in team history.

The winningest head coach in franchise history, Hollins led Memphis to a franchise-record regular season winning percentage (.621) last season, earning the Grizzlies a second-place finish in the Southwest Division and the fourth seed in the Western Conference Playoffs, both club bests.

Hollins has helped to establish a team identity and culture within the organization, transforming what was a young, inexperienced roster into one of the most tenacious and cohesive units in the NBA, leading the league in steals and forced turnovers in each of the past two seasons. Memphis also paces the league in points in the paint per game (49.6) since the start of the 2009-10 season.

The Grizzlies have steadily improved since Hollins' hiring, posting a 140-129 record (.520) after going 55-152 (.266) in the two-and-a-half seasons prior. In Hollins' first full season as head coach, during which he won the Western Conference Coach of the Month Award (December 2009), the Grizzlies posted a 40-42 record (.488), the second-best improvement in the NBA in 2009-10 (16 wins), while setting a club record for scoring (102.5 points) and establishing the longest home (11, Dec. 18, 2009-Jan. 25, 2010) and road winning streaks (7, Feb. 17-March 10, 2010) in franchise history.

The 22-year NBA coaching veteran was an original member of the Vancouver franchise and was a staple on the coaching sidelines for 10 of its first 12 seasons (1995-00, 2002-07). Hollins also served as the club's interim head coach on two separate occasions. Hollins guided Vancouver to an 18-42 finish (.300) in 1999-00, replacing Brian Hill after the team started the season 4-18 (.182), and again took over for four games in 2004-05 following the resignation of Hall of Famer Hubie Brown. Hollins owns an overall career coaching record of 158-175 (.474), including two stints as Grizzlies interim head coach.

Prior to joining the Grizzlies, the Arizona State graduate spent seven years with the Phoenix Suns (1988-95) as an assistant coach under Cotton Fitzsimmons and later Paul Westphal. During that time, Phoenix compiled an overall record of 394-180 (.686) and never won fewer than 53 games in a single season. The Suns won a franchise-record 62 games in the 1992-93 season and represented the Western Conference in the 1993 NBA Finals against the Chicago Bulls. Hollins returned to the sidelines in 2008 as an assistant under Milwaukee Bucks Head Coach Scott Skiles.

The Las Vegas native has honed his straightforward approach by serving under three NBA Coaches of the Year, including Brown (1977, 2005), Fitzsimmons (1978, 1989) and Fratello (1986) and was on the coaching staff when Brown and Fitzsimmons were honored with the award a second time. During his 10-year playing career (1975-85) in the NBA, Hollins was led by several notable head coaches, including the NBA's all-time coaching wins leader and Hall of Famer Lenny Wilkens, Hall of Famers Billy Cunningham, Chuck Daly and Jack Ramsay, as well as Bill Fitch and Paul Silas.

Selected sixth overall in the first round of the 1975 NBA Draft by the Portland Trail Blazers, Hollins earned a spot on the 1976 All-Rookie First Team and won an NBA Championship as a starter for the Trail Blazers in 1977. A year later, he was an NBA All-Star while also being named to the NBA's All-Defensive First Team. Hollins averaged 11.6 points, 4.5 assists and 1.56 steals over 673 career games with the Trail Blazers, Philadelphia 76ers, San Diego Clippers, Detroit Pistons and Houston Rockets.

Hollins has been inducted into the Halls of Fame of the NCAA, Arizona State University, Nevada High School Basketball, Southern Nevada Sports and the Pac-10. In addition, he has been named one of the Top 100 athletes of Nevada and one of the top 150 athletes of Arizona. His No. 14 jersey is retired by the Trail Blazers and his No. 33 jersey was raised to the rafters by Arizona State on Feb. 17, 2011.

He also is one of three NBA coaches, along with Doc Rivers and Rick Carlisle, on the new NBA competition committee, which recommends changes to playing rules or any other competition-related matters to the Board of Governors for its consideration and vote.

Hollins, who lives in Memphis, has been extremely active in the community. He serves on the Board of Directors for the Grizzlies Foundation and regularly leads Community Investment programs. In conjunction with Lionel Hollins Charities, he established the annual Bowling for Backpacks event in 2003, which has raised thousands of dollars to purchase school supplies and uniforms for underprivileged youth; and established the annual Bike Buddies event in 2010, in which hundreds of bicycles with helmets and locks have been provided for area children in need during the Christmas holiday, following an afternoon of reading, face painting and games. In addition, he hosts an annual Role Models Dinner, which includes a fine dining experience and a connection with mentors that volunteer for one year at their school. DAVID JOERGER

ASSISTANT COACH

One of the most successful minor league basketball coaches in history, David Joerger enters his sixth season as an assistant on the Grizzlies' bench.

Before earning his first NBA assistant coaching job with the Grizzlies, Joerger gained fame as head coach of the 2007 NBA D-League Champion Dakota Wizards, afterward becoming just the sixth head coach in D-League history to join the NBA coaching ranks.

The Wizards' championship was Joerger's fifth as a head coach. With one International Basketball Association (IBA) title and three in the Continental Basketball Association (CBA), Joerger also owns two CBA Coach of the Year Awards and a head coaching record of 232-117 (.665).

After finishing his playing career at Moorhead State, Joerger got his start as the Dakota Wizards' general manager when they were members of the IBA. He received his first opportunity on the sidelines as an assistant coach during the 1997-98 season. After three years as an assistant, Joerger replaced head coach Duane Ticknor and led the Wizards to their first championship during the 2000-01 season. Prior to the 2001-02 season, the Wizards moved into the CBA where Joerger led the team to another title. Continuing his success, Joerger captured his third title in four years after the Wizards defeated the Idaho Stampede to win the 2004 CBA Championship.

During the summer of 2004, Joerger moved to Sioux Falls to become the head coach of the Skyforce and proceeded to win his fourth CBA Championship, giving him more minor league championships than minor league-turned-NBA head coaches Phil Jackson, George Karl, Eric Musselman and Flip Saunders combined.

An excellent teacher of the game, Joerger had 18 of his players called up to the NBA from 2003-07.

Joerger and his wife, Kara, are the parents of two daughters, Alli, 9, and Kiana, 6.

Born in Vancouver, Canada in 1995, Grizz can always be relied upon to electrify audiences with dramatic dunks and signature shenanigans.

In celebration of the Grizzlies' historic 10th season in Memphis in 2010-11, Grizz re-introduced his equally popular alter-ego Super Grizz as a nod to the organization's first seasons in the Bluff City. Donning an updated mask and cape, Super Grizz encouraged fans to Believe as the team earned its first postseason berth since 2006 and advanced to the Western Conference Semifinals in thrilling fashion.

Memphis has proven to be the perfect natural habitat for Grizz, who stars in schools throughout the Mid-South as part of a variety of community initiatives. When not rallying fans at FedExForum or making appearances around town, Grizz is often found at St. Jude encouraging children in their battle against cancer, an issue near to Grizz's heart after his own defeat of the disease in 2008. If you would like Grizz to make an appearance at your special event please contact us at 901.205.1416.

GRIZZ GIRLS

The Grizzlies players aren't the only athletes on the court at FedExForum. With their fast-paced dance moves and exciting routines, the Grizz Girls rock FedExForum at every home game. Throughout the season, these dancers entertain arena audiences with high-energy dance routines that keep the crowd excited during timeouts, between quarters and selected halftime intermissions.

Away from the arena, the Grizz Girls add a special touch to the Grizzlies community and around the world. The Grizz Girls have taken their act international in the past two offseasons, spreading the excitement of the NBA to Hong Kong as part of NBA Madness 2011, China and Taiwan as part of NBA Madness 2012 and Mexico as part of the 2012 NBA Rafaga Experience. With their infectious personalities and athletic ability, the Grizz Girls also share their love of dance throughout the community with their dance clinics for kids and their weekly adult dance classes.

From the Blues to Rock to Hip Hop, the Grizz Girls dazzle crowds with exciting routines to a variety of music. Under the direction of choreographer Tamara Moore, they continue to keep fans guessing what they will tackle next. FEDERATION

AT A GLANCE

THE DON POIER MEDIA CENTER

On January 21, 2005, the Memphis Grizzlies suffered a tremendous loss when the team's play-by-play announcer, Don Poier, passed away at the age of 53. Poier was known as "the Voice of the Grizzlies," serving as a radio and television announcer since the team's inception in Vancouver in 1995.

He brought to Grizzlies broadcasts knowledge of the team and passion for the game that was second to none. His legacy to the franchise was secured in April 2005 when the team named the media suite at FedExForum the Don Poier Media Center. A banner was also hung from the rafters in his honor.

When the Grizzlies moved to Memphis from Vancouver in 2001, Poier immediately became a fixture in Memphis. Fans who had never heard him call a game before instantly fell in love with his style. He was the team's biggest supporter, yet was unafraid to tell the truth if the team was playing poorly.

His catchphrases, which he always came up with on the spot, never failed to make listeners chuckle. His signature phrase, 'Only in the movies and in Memphis,' was used regularly during the 2003-04 season as the team embarked on its amazing 50-win season and first playoff appearance. As one of the original Grizzlies, no one was more excited to be a part of that season's magical ride than Don Poier, who had been through the highest of highs and lowest of lows with the Grizzlies. But Poier's contributions in the broadcast booth were only the tip of the iceberg of a life that touched so many.

His wife, Barb, came to every Grizzlies home game and became as much a fixture at the arena as her husband.

Don and Barb derived great pleasure from their blended family, which included Don's three daughters, Barb's five children and 10 grandchildren. Although these were the immediate members of Poier's family, by no means were they the only members.

Anyone who worked for the Grizzlies organization was a member of the Poier family. He made a point of introducing himself to everyone he didn't know. His large family grew to thousands as he recruited each fan who listened to his distinctive booming voice.

His spirit and generosity also extended to the community. Poier was a fixture at Grizzlies community events, attending dozens of events on behalf of the Grizzlies every year. He was a member of the Bellingham Boys and Girls Club in Washington State, and hosted a summer golf tournament in his home state of Washington.

Poier's memory will always be treasured by his Grizzlies family.

The Grizzlies honored Don Poier, "The Voice of the Grizzlies," by naming the media center in FedExForum after him.

Mission Statement

Our mission is to create opportunities for area youth through community outreach, education and sport development initiatives.

Community Outreach

The Memphis Grizzlies invest in communities throughout the Mid-South by providing quality services, programs, events and in-kind donations that support the needs of area hospitals, schools and non-profits. During the 2012-13 season, the Grizzlies supported over 450 local and regional organizations through its Donations In-Kind and Tickets for Kids programs. In addition, the Grizzlies host several seasonal programs, which include events such as the Grizzlies Annual Canned Food Drives presented by ACH Food Companies, Inc. to benefit the Mid-South Food Bank, Grizzlies Holiday Toy Drive benefiting MIFA's Holiday Hope Chest, St. Jude Children's Research Hospital's Thanks and Giving and Hoops for St. Jude campaigns, Black History Month on-court recognitions, Grizzlies Go Green Week, and the Annual Tip-Off Luncheon and Grizz Gala, both supporting Grizzlies House at St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. The Grizzlies also help support Grizzlies House at St. Jude through proceeds from online and in-arena auctions. The online auctions feature one-of-a-kind Grizzlies memorabilia and experiences that fans can bid on by simply visiting grizzlies.com. The in-arena auctions feature autographed memorabilia from past Grizzlies players and teams.

Marc Gasol visited with children at St. Jude in March 2012

The Grizzlies auxiliary group, Lady Bears, works closely with the Community Investment and Basketball Operations Departments to support outreach initiatives throughout the Mid-South community. Members are comprised of women who play a significant role in the lives of Grizzlies players, coaches, basketball operations and ownership staff. This past season the Lady Bears hosted a wine tasting fundraiser at Texas de Brazil to benefit Porter Leath and for the third-straight year hosted a Thanksgiving dinner at the Salvation Army's Purdue Center of Hope in November. The ladies, along with head coach Lionel Hollins, assistant coaches Dave Joerger and Barry Hecker, Marc Gasol, and other family members, served Thanksgiving dinner to homeless women and children. The Lady Bears also provided the children with backpacks, hats and gloves.

Education

The NBA's Read to Achieve Program is the most extensive educational outreach initiative in the history of professional sports. Read to Achieve is designed to encourage our community's youth to develop a life-long love for reading and to promote the value of reading and literacy. Since the Grizzlies moved to Memphis from Vancouver in 2001, players, coaches and staff members have been actively involved in Read to Achieve by reading to students at area schools. Each season, the Grizzlies partner with International Paper to host a Read to Achieve Celebration at FedExForum. The Celebration rewards the top 100 readers from each school participating in the Memphis Grizzlies Reading Challenge. The Reading Challenge is a literacy initiative that encourages elementary age students to read six books in six weeks. The Grizzlies' Read to Achieve program touches the lives of nearly 25,000 Mid-South students through the Grizzlies Reading Challenge and Read to Achieve Assemblies. In addition to the Read to Achieve Program, the Grizzlies host the Stay in School Challenge presented by Lucite International to help encourage middle school students to increase their attendance rates by attending school regularly.

The Grizzlies also introduced the Grizzlies Poetry Slam presented by Southwest Tennessee Community College. High school students were encouraged to compose and perform original works of poetry based on the theme "I Believe" for a chance to win a trip to New York City.

Sport Development

The Grizzlies' sport development initiatives include the Healthy Home Court fitness program, Jr. Grizzlies and the Hoops Camps Series. The Grizzlies partnered with The National Basketball Academy to conduct the Hoops Camp Series, which consists of four camp series: fall, holiday, spring break and summer. Each camp focuses on developing fundamental basketball skills in a safe, fun environment and are open to area youth ages 6-14 of all skill levels. Jr. Grizzlies provides area recreation basketball leagues the opportunity to be affiliated with the Grizzlies by receiving game tickets, professional basketball clinics for participating players and coaches, and an official Jr. Grizzlies jersey. There were over 6,500 youth participants in the Jr. Grizzlies league during the 2012-13 NBA season. The Grizzlies Healthy Home Court fitness initiative focuses on two areas, encouraging high school students to eat a healthy breakfast and encouraging families to get active together for at least 30 minutes three days a week.

MEMPHIS GRIZZLIES CHARITABLE FOUNDATION

Recognized widely for the comprehensive community-wide youth mentoring initiative, Grizzlies TEAM UP, the Grizzlies Foundation has distinguished itself a leader – locally and nationally – in youth outreach. The Grizzlies Foundation and the Grizzlies' community investment departments' dedication to the Memphis community was honored this summer with the prestigious 'Sport Team of the Year' Award at the 2012 Beyond Sport Summit, one year after being selected as a finalist in the category. The Grizzlies Foundation was also the recipient of the Steve Patterson Sports Philanthropy Award, presented by the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, in 2007.

Since 2001, the Grizzlies Foundation (and the Grizzlies Charitable Fund, which preceded the Foundation) has donated over $29 Million to Memphis area nonprofit organizations and schools. Tens of thousands of children and families have directly benefited from these funds, resulting in new facilities and programs, including Memphis Athletic Ministries, Girls Incorporated, Facing History and Ourselves, the Soulsville Foundation, MIFA, STREETS Ministries, Memphis PREP Program and ArtsMemphis.

Beyond the cash contributions, the Grizzlies Foundation creates long-term partnerships with all agencies that receive funding with ongoing, hands-on involvement, significant outcomes are achieved.

Grizzlies TEAM UP Youth Mentoring Initiative

Based on research that shows how the presence of even one mentor can help a young person achieve academically, develop resiliency and establish goals and avoid risky behavior, the Grizzlies have now become an award-winning leader in this space, successfully building a comprehensive community-wide initiative that has engaged thousands of individuals and dozens of organizations in youth mentoring in the Memphis.

This approach includes volunteer mentor recruitment, training and retention programs and activities; program manager networking, training and consulting; Corporate Mentoring program design and development; and vast partnership development and public awareness-building.

In 2011, the Grizzlies Foundation launched Grizzlies TEAM Mentoring, a new school-based model for mentoring that matches teams of three mentors to groups of nine students. Teams meet weekly, exploring topics ranging from leadership and civic engagement to health and financial literacy. Currently the program serves 160 students in four Memphis public charter schools.

The Grizzlies Foundation also facilitates corporate engagement in mentoring, ranging from employee volunteer programs to event-based corporate sponsorships. These efforts bring both human and financial resources to the mentoring community and enable Grizzlies TEAM UP and its partners to serve far more youth.

In addition, the Grizzlies Foundation is home to the Grizzlies Mentoring Alliance (formerly the Memphis Mentoring Partnership), an affiliate of MENTOR/The National Mentoring Partnership, which offers vast services and resources to support and sustain quality mentoring programs in the Greater Memphis region.

As the "hub" for youth mentoring in the Mid-South, any individual or organization interested in mentoring will find the resources and guidance necessary to get involved in a meaningful, lasting way. For more information, visit www.GrizzliesTeamUp.org or email mentor@grizzlies.com.

Memphis Grizzlies Preparatory Charter School

The Grizzlies opened Grizzlies Preparatory Charter School, a public middle school for boys located in Downtown Memphis on July 30, 2012. Educating young men in grades six to eight, Grizzlies Prep prepares all students to excel academically and demonstrate integrity. Within a rigorous and structured middle school, students become equipped for success in high school, college, and life.

Beginning in October 2012, community members will have opportunities to tutor and mentor Grizzlies Prep students. For more information, visit www.grizzliesprep.org.

- The Grizzlies finished second in the Southwest Division, earning their highest end-of-season rank in the division.

- Marc Gasol was named to his first career All-Star Game, marking the Grizzlies' third All-Star selection.
- Rudy Gay returned from last year's season-ending shoulder injury to lead the team in scoring and surpass Shane Battier as the franchise's all-time leader in total steals, doing so on Feb. 2 at Atlanta.

- Memphis won the first seven postseason games in franchise history, advancing to the conference semifinals for the first time and selling out all six home playoff games at FedExForum.
- The Grizzlies became the second eighth-seed in NBA history to eliminate a one-seed in a seven-game series (Golden State over Dallas in 2007).
- Memphis competed in a triple-overtime epic with Oklahoma City in Game 4 of the Western Conference Semifinals at FedExForum, tying the longest game in team history and marking the longest game in club postseason history.

FEDEXFORUM

FedExForum was delivered on time and on budget to the City of Memphis.

The $250 million FedExForum opened on time and on budget in September 2004, and has since come to be known as the premier arena in the NBA and in North America. It is home to the NBA's Memphis Grizzlies and the University of Memphis Tigers men's basketball team, and in the seven basketball seasons since FedExForum opened, the arena has played host to three NBA Playoff series, six Conference USA Men's Basketball Tournaments (2005-09, 2012), the 2009 NCAA South Regional Men's Division I Basketball Tournament and the 2010 NCAA South Regional Women's Division I Basketball Tournament. Last spring, the Conference USA returned to Memphis for the 2012 C-USA Men's Basketball Tournament, the sixth at FedExForum, and 2012 C-USA Women's Basketball Tournament.

Last season, FedExForum saw another strong year, hosting over 100 arena events and over 100 private meeting events that took advantage of some of the unique meeting and function spaces throughout the arena. The professional operation at FedExForum resulted in it being named one of three finalists for the International Association of Venue Managers (IAVM) Venue Excellence Award in the category of arenas in July 2012. This season looks like another great year with some exciting new events coming to Memphis!

FedExForum has already played host to many concerts of chart-topping stars including: the Rolling Stones, Elton John, Eric Clapton, Justin Timberlake, George Strait, Kenny Chesney, Tim McGraw and Faith Hill, John Mayer, Carrie Underwood, Red Hot Chili Peppers, Taylor Swift, Miley Cyrus, Kid Rock, Alicia Keys, Foo Fighters, Michael Bublé, Usher, Justin Bieber, Bon Jovi and AC/DC among other A-List acts that have played FedExForum.

Additionally, Memphis and FedExForum have become a premier location for major boxing events having already hosted seven World Championship Boxing events, four concert rehearsals and tour openings as well as many major family shows like the Ringling Bros. and Barnum and Bailey Circus, Disney on Ice, Monster Jam and Motocross, World Wrestling Entertainment, Cirque du Soleil and Professional Bull Riders. FedExForum also helped lead the initiative to legalize mixed martial arts in the state of Tennessee, leading to UFC 107 being held at FedExForum in December 2009.

FedExForum has become more than just an arena. It has achieved the goals set by Grizzlies ownership, management and community leaders and has become the new front porch for Memphis, a place where people can come together. Since the arena opened in September 2004, millions of fans have enjoyed a basketball game, concert or event at FedExForum. Additionally, FedExForum has become synonymous with unprecedented "Fans First" service, a principle which led to the Grizzlies and FedExForum being ranked No. 1 overall in the "Bang for the Buck" category in ESPN The Magazine's 2011 Ultimate Standings (No. 9 franchise overall), a composite ranking of all 122 franchises across the four major professional sports in North America (MLB, NBA, NFL, NHL).

In the fall of 2008, FedExForum established a venue services agreement with AEG Facilities, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Anschutz Company and one of the leading sports and entertainment presenters in the world. As a result of the agreement, executive members of the AEG Facilities staff work directly with the management team at FedExForum to design and provide various support services and resources to stimulate additional revenue growth and create new revenue streams for the organization while enhancing existing business practices. The overall focus of the consulting agreement is to maximize event activity, create new marketing partnerships and generate sales initiatives for the venue.

So what is it about FedExForum that has the city, the NBA and fans buzzing?

There are five seating levels in the arena, with wide concourses making navigating the building easy. There are over 100 points of sale for concession stands, meaning expedited service. There are four full-service restaurants, with three offering service to Premium Seat Holders: Opus, a fine dining restaurant overlooking the court; the Blue Note Lounge, where fans can get a cocktail and a light meal before or during the game and enjoy the new standing ledge; the Lexus Lounge, where fans can watch the Grizzlies run onto the court from the locker room; and one open to all fans just off the Grand Lobby – Jack Daniel's Old No. 7 Sports Bar – a fun pre-game meeting place with patio seating. There is also the Legends Lounge, a patio area overlooking Beale Street where fans can meet and greet before and after every game. Finally, there is a Courtside Lounge just off the floor, exclusive for courtside seat holders. Each of those spaces is also available to rent for private functions during non-game or event times.

All of the food in FedExForum is provided by Levy Restaurants, the leader in sports and entertainment venue dining, and fans experience selection and quality beyond anything they've ever had at a sporting event. Whether it's a Memphis favorite such as Neely's Barbecue, something more exotic, or traditional fare like hamburgers, every fan can find something to satisfy their appetite. In 2011, FedExForum was chosen by readers of Memphis Sport Magazine for Best Concessions at any Mid-South venue.

Once in their seats, the first thing fans notice is the massive videoboard. Designed by Daktronics, the center-hung scoreboard provides fans with live video, instant replays and information on ten large, digital full-color displays, including four dedicated scoring sections. The scoreboard is one of the biggest in the NBA, measuring approximately 22 feet high by 38 feet in diameter. The unique design of the main center-hung scoreboard includes two 360-degree full-color rings of LED on the top and bottom of the scoreboard. Four additional video displays, in vertical configuration, flank the main video screens and dedicated scoring sections.

FEDEXFORUM

To complement the center-hung video and scoring displays, additional LED displays are prominently featured around the seating bowl. One 360-degree ring of light encircles the entire seating bowl, mounted on the Terrace Level fascia. A second large display curves 270 degrees around the Club Level fascia. The four LED rings comprise one of the largest amount of linear feet of LED in any arena in the United States. FedExForum is also equipped with a state-of-the-art sound system, as well as acoustic technology, making the sound in the arena crystal clear.

Before, during and after games, fans can buy the latest merchandise and Grizzlies gear in the Grizzlies Den team store, located in the Grand Lobby and at several boutique stores throughout FedExForum. The store is also open on non-game days from 10 a.m. – 5 p.m. Monday – Friday and 10 a.m. – 4 p.m. on Saturday. Summer hours are Monday – Friday 11 a.m. – 4 p.m. (closed Saturdays and Sundays) and can be reached by phone at (901) 205-1551.

One of the most unique features of FedExForum is the music theme that is prevalent throughout the arena. Luxury Suite holders have their name engraved on a record outside their suite, and lyric sheets from famous Memphis songs appear prominently on the walls. Concessions and restaurants are named with uniquely Memphis music themes and areas of the arena concourses are divided into sponsored zones highlighting musical genres like Rock 'n' Roll, the Blues, Gospel, Memphis Music Today and more.

FedExForum is also home to the Rock 'n' Soul Museum on the street level of the administration building. The Rock 'n' Soul Museum traces the roots of rock and roll and soul music in Memphis, offering visitors a self-guided tour of Memphis music from the early 20th century into the 1970s. The Rock 'n' Soul Museum is one of only two Smithsonian Institution exhibits not located in Washington, D.C.

FedExForum has set a new standard for arenas in the NBA and surpassed all expectations. But in addition to all the impressive numbers, it achieved something even more significant: it became Memphis' new front porch and the premier showcase of entertainment in the Mid-South.
